

Table A2. Substances that are prohibited in the usage by Voluntary-Imposed Regulations

No.	Substances that are prohibited in the usage	Laws and Regulations to be Compliance (reference)	Specified Date (prohibited in the usage after specified date)	Threshold (prohibited when the content is equal to or more than threshold)	Revision
1	Lead	EU-ELV Directive EU-RoHS Directive Batteries Directive	2010.1.1	0.1wt%	Rev5.1
2	Cadmium		2008.1.1	0.01wt% (0.002wt% in the case of battery)	Rev5.1
3	Hexavalent chrome		2010.1.1	0.1wt%	Rev5.1
4	RCF	Occupational Health and Safety Law Japan	2016.10.1	0.1wt%	Rev5.50

On October 1, 2016, mercury is listed as prohibition substance substances (changed from Yanmar voluntary prohibition substance), and RCF is newly listed as Yanmar voluntary prohibition substance.